Tumwater Education Association Operating Principles

The Tumwater Education Association will foster a culture that values and honors member involvement. Therefore, we agree that:

1. We will seek solutions that all parties can see furthering their personal and professional growth, and by which all parties feel honored.
2. We will seek solutions in a manner that helps building working relationships based on trust, honesty, dignity, and respect.
3. We will exercise good communication skills, including active listening, assertive word choices, and taking ownership of our own feelings and perceptions.
4. We will strive to focus on the issues.
5. We will seek solutions at levels closest to the situation.
6. We will seek to provide safe, dignified, and respectful contexts within which we can address problems and explore solutions.
